How to setup a Windows Live ID

In order to use MS IT Academy, you need to login using a Windows Live ID. If you have an MSN Hotmail email account, you already have a Windows Live ID. This process requires many steps but the purpose is to guarantee the security and privacy needed for the IT Academy environment. To setup a new Windows Live ID follow these steps:

1. Go to https://accountservices.passport.net/ppnetworkhome.srf and this will take you to the Windows Live ID page.

 Scroll down and find the "Sign up today" section. If you want to use any existing email account use the second option; click on Get started now under the Use an e-mail address you already have section. If you want to create a Hotmail account use the first option.

3. Enter the account information (existing email address, password, retype password, password reset question and security characters in picture). After entering all this, click Continue.
